

HOW TO USE THE PARENTS' CODE OF CONDUCT FORM

If your town requires that parents must sign your town's own Code of Conduct form when they register their child into your program, all you have to do is:

1. Fill out the bottom of this form and sign it.
2. Attach a copy of your town's Code of Conduct form your town uses.
3. Bring the completed form to Jeff Schneider when you are registering your teams. -----

If your town does not use its own Code of Conduct form, you must:

1. Fill in the names of each player you plan to register on the Code of Conduct form supplied on the PVISL website. Use one Code of Conduct form for each team.
2. Have each parent read the Code of Conduct form and sign it.
3. Fill in the bottom of each Code of Conduct form and sign it.
4. Bring the completed Code of Conduct forms to Tony Espiritu when you are registering your teams.

PARENT'S CODE OF CONDUCT

With my signature I hereby signify that:

- 1. I promise to treat all players (including the opposing players) as well as the opposing coaches, all fellow spectators and the officials with respect as I would want my own children, family and friends treated.
- 2. I accept the fact that dissent of any type, by word or action, is prohibited by PVISL rules.
- 3. No alcohol, no food and no smoking within the school building is permitted.
- 4. As adults I will and must set a good example for the players and other young persons who will follow our conduct.
- 5. I understand that only certified coaches may coach or provide direction to the players. I will refrain from interfering by shouting directions at the team during play.
- 6. I will remember that the program is for the benefit of the children and not to satisfy my own ambitions or desires.
- 7. I will not enter the playing surface during the game for any reason unless invited by the referee.
